“CAUGHT IN THE ACT”

Hello again! Or perhaps merely hello! I'm sure some of you have never come in to contact with this creature known as Murmurmontis. So this introduction is not merely for those who remember, but also for those who are curious. Well, for those who remember, last year I asked a hobbit friend of mine to write this portion of the book. This year I deemed it more appropriate for me to show you this wonderful place called Wesleyan of West Virginia. So welcome, and most of all, enjoy!

Wesleyan is as diverse as any college, I suppose, but I think that because of its size, location, and yes, its heritage, it is more than simply a college. Wesleyan is a home. The setting of the campus is in beautiful, wild, and wonderful West Virginia, and there is always plenty to see and do.

Because the college is fairly small in size, it creates the environment of a very tightly knit family. Everyone cares for the problems of others, and all are always willing to lend a helping hand.

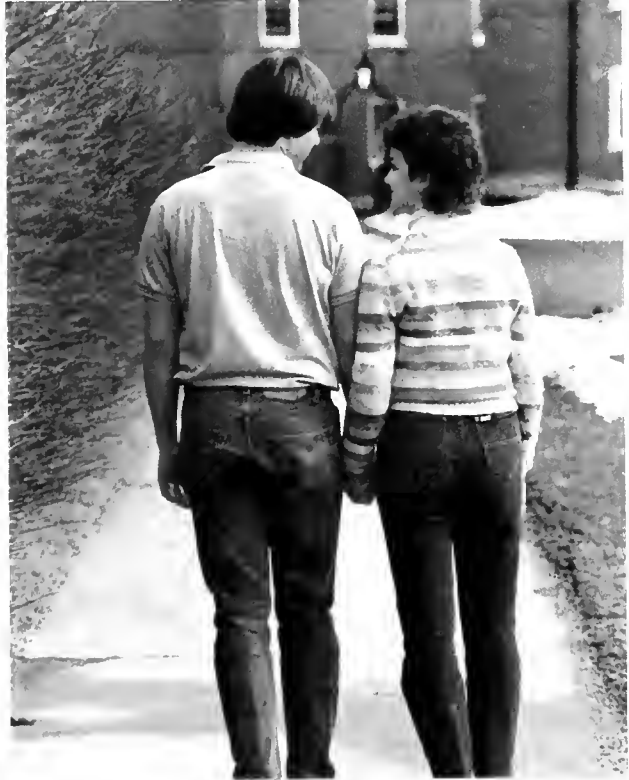

No matter what college a person goes to, the experience is most certainly a unique one. The college experience is one that will never be forgotten, and Wesleyan is no different.

New levels of understanding and independence will be achieved. New friends and interests will be cultivated, and the realization that one is truly on his own will come falling inward.

The dorm room and midnight pizza are more important than Mom and Dad will ever know, but there is more to college than this. Enjoying food, soccer and basketball, hanging out with friends, and simply learning to appreciate beauty, whether it be our fellow man or the nature all around us, is what Wesleyan is really all about.

Student Life

Student life is an important aspect of campus activity. Students can always find something to keep themselves occupied on campus. One great hangout is the SCOW. Here students can play their favorite game, whether this be pool, bowling, or Ms. Pac-Man. Or, students can sit in the lobby and stare at MTV for hours on end and gossip with their friends. The Top of the SCOW is a great place to find munchies. The Gym is another common place to find students. One can always see energetic people running around the green room or lifting weights in the weight room. On nice, sunny fall or spring days, students are seen in the quad or the oval tossing a frisbee. Students study on the chapel steps or out in front of the SCOW. Life on Wesleyan's campus can never be considered boring.

A Look at Wesleyan Through the Year

Homecoming is an exciting time of the year for everyone: students, faculty and alumni. The weekend started with the Homecoming Coronation in the chapel. Here the campus gets a look at the freshman attendants and girls up for Homecoming Queen. Everybody waits in anticipation, especially the girls, for the queen to be named. This year's Homecoming Queen was Beth Giammario. The next morning starts early as groups put final touches on their floats. The theme of this year's homecoming was Wesleyan Through The Years. All floats somehow portrayed this idea. The parade processed all through town and ended up at the chapel oval. Later in the day, the Bobcats put up a vicious fight against Glenville State. During half time, winners of the floats were announced. The weekend was enjoyed by the whole community.

Children Come To Wesleyan For A Day On Campus

On December 2, 1984, the first "CHRISTMAS ON CAMPUS" at Wesleyan lighted up the hearts and eyes of 163 children and 63 campus guides. From 1:15-4:14 p.m. second and third graders from Buckhannon were escorted to a host of Christmas activities sponsored by Wesleyan organizations. The afternoon ended with carols around the Christmas tree at the SCOW and a message from Santa Claus.

The purpose of this program was to share the Christmas spirit with the community around us, reinforce the potential of service within Wesleyan's students, and create a community spirit between the college and our host city.

Christian Life Council sponsored "Christmas on Campus" and Beth Olson was its founder and first chairperson. Many students, faculty and staff assisted by wrapping gifts, being undercover elves, donating needed items, and much more. Buckhannon merchants who made donations include: Dollar General, Foodland, Kasten's, Kroger, Murphy's, Murphy's Mart, and Shop 'n Save.

Organizations who sponsored activities were Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Lambda Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, Black Student Coalition, Chi Phi, Christian Life Council, Freshman Class, International Students, Loveshine, Outing Club, Residence Hall Council, Sacred Dance, Sigma Alpha Iota, Sigma Theta Epsilon and Zeta Tau Alpha.

Festival of Lessons and Carols

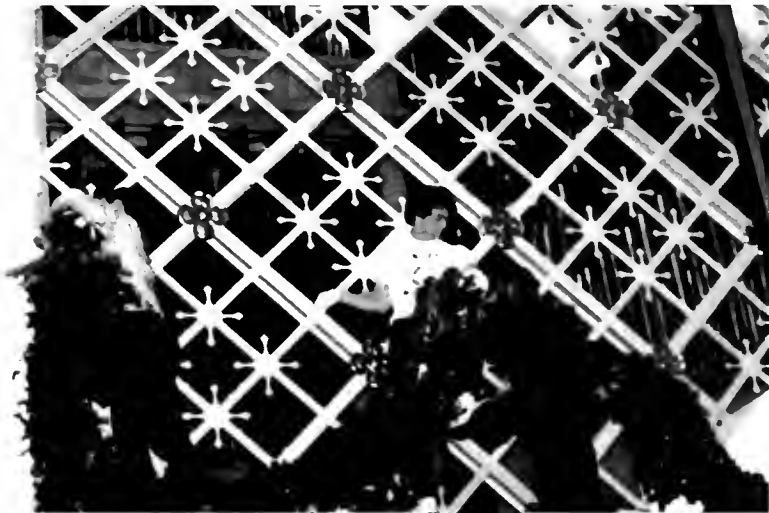

Christmas is an exciting time for everyone. On December 2, the Wesleyan Community started the beginning of the Christmas season by attending the Festival of Lessons and Carols. Held in the chapel, the Concert Chorale, under the direction of Larry Parsons, sang carols and other hymns. The service ended with a recession outside where students, faculty, townspeople stood around the Christmas tree, sang carols and watched as the tree was lighted. From there, students went to the Social Hall for refreshments. The evening put everyone in the Christmas mood.

Hanging of the Greens

The Hanging of the Greens, a tradition of the Wesleyan community, brings the campus into the Christmas spirit. The weekend event started with the collection of the pine branches. After the greens have been collected, anxious students, faculty and community people meet in Kresge Hall to make the pine into wreaths and garlands. Then the garlands are hung throughout the Chapel. The last event is standing back and admiring the work.

Oh Yea. It's the Cafeteria!

As I am approaching McCuskey dining hall it occurs to me that I might not have my meal ticket. I better check my pocket before I get in there and discover that I have to walk all the way back to my room and get it. Whew! I have it. As I walk through the doors of McCuskey, I can smell something. Lord only knows what it smells like. Oh well. the person behind me forgot his meal ticket, and the checker wouldn't let him in.

First come the napkins. Put them on the tray, and pick out a knife, fork, and spoon. What do you know, all of them are clean on the first pick! Do I want anything at the salad bar? Well at least the lettuce is green today. Nah! I'll just go through the line and see what they have today. Of course, we are having sloppy joes and macaroni and cheese. Maybe I'll get a sandwich at the sandwich bar instead. Bologna and cheese on wheat. Now for a diet coke on the rocks. Do I want anything else? No. It all looks sooo good! Oh well, I'll just find a seat and eat my delicious meal.

A Wesleyan Wake-up!

Have you ever had one of these days?

I rolled over to shut off the nagging sound of my alarm clock. I realized that it was 7:00 on a Monday morning. I thought to myself, "Self, you have to get up for an 8:00 class. It is not Saturday!" So I made my way to the shower. When I finished, I reached over to get my towel. oops! I forgot it. I had a feeling it was going to be one of those days.

While in my room, I tried to turn my blow dryer on. I blew a fuse! I did not understand until I asked my RA to turn the electricity back on. She pointed out to me that I was overloading the circuit. After finally getting to blow dry my hair, I went to put a pair of pants on. But guess what? They were all dirty! When I finally finished getting ready, it was 7:59. I rushed to get my books together and then ran to class. Once I saw how beautiful the morning was, I realized it was going to be a good day.

When The Sun Goes Down . . .

You can always find something to do at night. If you have a fancy for dancing, the Cinema V Showbar or Spanky & Alfalfa's are good places to go. Or if you just want to socialize and have a drink you can always find a party going on at one of the fraternities. But if you have the munchies, there is Rol-Star, McDonalds, SCOW, or Dominos pizza delivers. For a quiet time, a stroll with a friend around the beautiful lit up campus is relaxing. Or invite a special friend to your room or to the meditation chapel for a talk. There is always something to do after the sun goes down at Wesleyan . . .

Right: Spyro Gyra saxophone player blows his solo.

CAB has done it again! Another year filled with many new and interesting entertainers. The year started out with an outdoor picnic held in the quad while Sugar-creek performed. This was a good time for freshmen to get a peek at what college life is about. The beautiful weather and good music was enjoyed by all. Jazz specialists Spyro Gyra entertained in the gym on September 15. Everyone who went enjoyed the magnificent performance. Singing group Regency sang their street corner music in the top of the SCOW. They sang a combination of motown and pop at will.

Parker Macdonnell brings laughter from his audience.

The famed James Taylor played his popular songs on September 25. Held in a full chapel, his audience sang along on such songs as "Sweet Baby James," "You've Got a Friend," and "Fire and Rain." The month of October brought Kier, Tom Parks and the Touring Company from Second City. Performing in Atkinson; this series of short skits brought laughter from everyone. Comedian Parker Macdonell started November. He performed to a full top of the SCOW. The comedian succeeded to bring a smile and a chuckle from everyone.

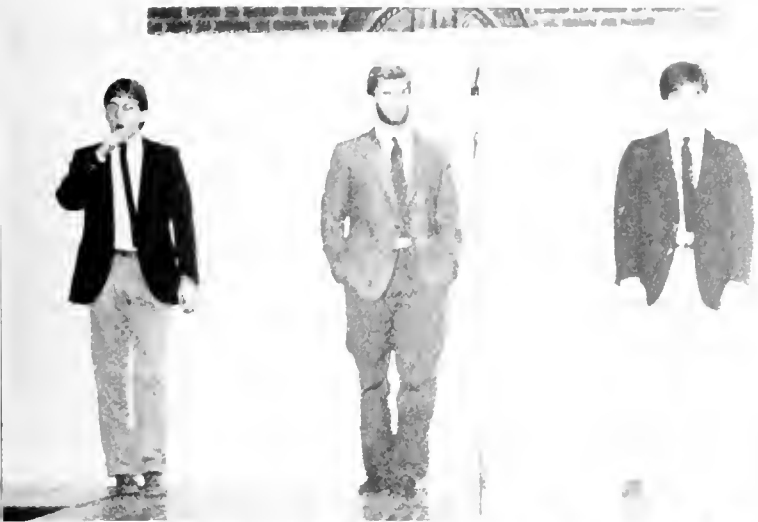

Winter Fun

J-Term always brings about many exciting events. Movies and sports events are always highly attended during this time. In addition, this year witnessed the first Wesleyan Trivia Pursuit. Based on the game, students answered several questions relating to Wesleyan. The winners were a group of four girls. The next fun event was miniature golf held in the green room. This intricately designed eighteen hole course is always a challenge to even the pro.

Alpha Xi Delta's Male Beauty Pageant is especially enjoyed by the females on campus. Here, several guys must compete in swim suit, formal wear, talent and question/answer period. Students always enjoy the variety of events held during J-Term.

Top: Three participants of the Male Beauty Pageant stand in anticipation.

MORE CAB . . .

Strumming the guitar at right is entertainer Dave Rudolf. A yet to be discovered, but hefty singer with a wide variety of songs and styles, seen here in 1985.

Below: Stark Raven, a band that, for some reason or another is into pink flamingos. A crazy act with a good beat.

Anyone Juggle?

WELL this guy sure can! Edward Jackman can juggle anything under the sun (as long as he can lift it) Bowling balls, knives and bicycles name just a few of the objects he sails over his head. He is also quite a comedian. Capable of dicing anyone or anything that he feels needs reckoning with. Take it away Ed . . .

TAIWAN?

The men and women gymnasts of Taiwan. Only one could speak English, but they sure got their message across. Fun for all ages. A lama that could walk on giant golf balls, death defying acts, juggling, fun with pies and of course much much more . . .

“Hey Spike, What’s CAB sponsoring this week?”

“I don’t know, Agnus, I can never keep up with that bunch!”

“When’s the next stage?”
“Ask CAB, they’re the only people who know what’s going on around

ENTERTAINING, AREN'T THEY?

Wesleyan's Nurses

Capping is a very meaningful and important time for nursing majors. This is the first real step toward nursing. In order for the grand event to take place, students must complete one year of sciences with grueling labs. This is an exciting time for everyone. Parents and friends come from far away to be a part of this event. The students enjoy dressing up in their uniforms for the first time. They are also excited by the prospect of actually working with patients who are soon to follow. Capping is the first of many important events that happen to a nursing student.

Opposite page counterclockwise: Diane Bogdanski practices a new concept on one of the dummies.; Karen Harshberger also practices a technique on the dummy.; Gail Pjontek listens carefully to what is being said.; Amy Appleby and Terry Conrad take a relaxing time out from labwork.; Gail Pjontek and Sheri Shallenberger watch attentively as a new procedure is being demonstrated.

The nursing lab is very important for the student nurses. Here students practice a variety of concepts before using them in real situations. These concepts range from such simple tasks as making hospital corners to the more complex ones of general and neurological assessment. As grueling as it may be, the labs are a very important aspect of the students' education.

DORM LIFE

I love Residence Hall life, Don't you? Life in and around dorms is an endless outlet for social, physical and emotional energy. The hallway decor is what originally enticed me. Of course a dorm room is simply what you, yourself make of it. A loft, some nice posters, a rug, and a touch of imagination can transform a room that looks like the YMCA into home. As I said before, the dorm is multi-faceted. You can hang out in it; sleep in it; make a mess out of it, without Mom yelling; you can set fire to it (of course you might be lynched the following day); and you can even study in it. Best of all, on a nice day, everyone can get outside and be merry in the sunshine.

GREEK WEEK

Remember it! The boat race, the bed race, the tug of war, and of course the traditional keg toss . . . but what about all of the rest of Greek Week? What about all of those obscure events: three legged races, wrestling, volleyball, bowling and that big event . . . simple enjoyment.

Well, this year the Murmormontis dedicates the Greek Week section to all of the "little people." After all, what would Greek Week be without a little joy, and all of the events we often forget.

IN MEMORY OF THOMAS ALLEN MANFUSO

What through the radiance which was once so bright
Be now forever taken from my sight,
 Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass, or glory in the flower;
 We will grieve not, rather find
 Strength in what remains behind,
 In the primal sympathy
 Which having been must ever be;
 In the soothing thoughts that spring
 Out of human suffering;
 In the faith that looks through death,
In years that bring the philosophic mind.

— William Wordsworth

Women's Tennis

The 1984 Womens tennis team includes: Alison Taylor, Lisa Pires, Suzanne Sanders, Curtis R. Wooten, Jr., Becky Minton, Jill Lamone, Janet Chernenko, Andrea Stumpp.

Led by West Virginia Conference player of the year, Janet Chernenko, Wesleyan again posted an outstanding season in women's tennis finishing second in the WVIAC and recording a 10-1 slate. Chernenko, a senior from Wellsburg, posted a record of 13-0 and captured her second straight number one WVIAC singles title. It also capped the second consecutive season she was selected as "Player of the Year" in the conference.

While Chernenko was waltzing over the competition at number one, the Lady Cats' number six player, junior Suzanne Sanders also enjoyed great success. Sanders captured the number six singles title in the conference meet and posted a season record of 13-0. The Sparks, Maryland native also combined with junior Jill Lamone to win the number three doubles title in the WVIAC Tournament at West Liberty.

Junior Lisa Pires of Wallingford, Connecticut posted a season record of 8-5 at the number two singles position and was runner-up in the conference tournament. Pires and Taylor also finished in second place in the number two doubles competition.

Taylor finished 9-3 in the number four slot and was a second place finisher in the WVIAC Tournament.

First year coach Curtis Wooten was quite pleased with his team's performance. "The women improved throughout the season and just had a super attitude," said Wooten. "I cannot say enough about Chernenko as she was outstanding all fall. Minton was a big surprise for us at the number three slot while Sanders showed tremendous improvement in every match."

The Lady Bobcats posted wins over West Liberty, Charleston, Fairmont State, Davis and Elkins, Shepherd, Frostburg State and Concord State in the early regular season with the only defeat coming from West Liberty in early September.

With all the performers but Chernenko returning next fall, Wooten feels optimistic about the future of the women's tennis program. "We have a lot of great returning talent next fall," notes Wooten. If we can find a strong player to replace Chernenko, I see no reason why we will not be very competitive again."

The 1984-85 Bobcats suffered through a 9-1 record this past season. Senior Steve Scadlock said, "The season was not a productive season due to the offensive structure, but changes are being made for next year's Bobcats." Scadlock also said, "Next year's season will be a very promising one due to the offensive changes which will be made. Some defensive goals were met, but not all of them were successfully completed. Next year the Bobcats will have a very strong defense." In closing Scadlock said, "Our offensive and defense is building for a better 1985-86 football season."

Soccer: The National Championship

National Champions! That is West Virginia Wesleyan College's soccer team. The Bobcats, under the leadership of Coach Tom Martin, captured the first national championship in the institution's history November 24, when they came from behind to defeat Fresno Pacific 3-2 in sudden death overtime in the NAIA Tournament in Fresno.

Martin had felt that this team was one of his best at the beginning of the season. But not even the tremendously successful coach could expect the 1984 results. The Cats posted a school record 21-2 slate, defeating several major colleges, but most importantly won every post-season game.

After a 14-2 regular season record, Wesleyan began its quest for the national championship by downing Wheeling in the opening round of the District 28 playoffs. The Cats then won their second NAIA District 28 championship by sweeping past rival Alderson-Broaddus 3-1 in Philippi, behind All-American senior fullback Les Farr's three goals.

Winning the national tournament also earned many post-season honors for the Bobcats. Martin was selected to coach the Senior Soccer Bowl's East Team in Tampa, while Farr was chosen as a participant.

Farr and McLean were named to the NAIA All-American First Team, the fourth time in Farr's career and the senior from Kingston, Jamaica, was voted "Player of the Year" in the West Virginia Conference. McLean set new scoring records in a single season with 20 goals and 17 assists. Thomasos and sophomore Derrick Leeson were voted to the third team of the NAIA All-American squad, and Leeson, McLean, Farr, and Payne were awarded all-conference honors.

It was indeed a banner year. From victories over N. Carolina, George Mason, Virginia Tech, and West Virginia to the NAIA National Championship, Wesleyan's soccer players provided the institution and the Buckhannon community a year nobody will ever forget. National Champions!

The Cats did it again! The WVWC Bobcats again played their way to the number 1 position in the WVIAC tournament. This is the third consecutive year that the Bobcats are headed for Kansas City and the NAIA championship.

The Bobcats cleaned up the WVIAC tournament with three wins under first year coach Rich Cameron. The first blow was felt by Wheeling as the Bobcats walked away that Thursday, the opening night of the WVIAC tournament, with a 58-51 win.

The next team to go down was the West Virginia Golden Bears with an easy 97-78 victory on Friday night which moved Wesleyan into the title contest.

In the third and final game, the Fairmont State Falcons were slaughtered in the last round of the 50th WVIAC Basketball tournament, 92-66. This game gave the Cats a position in the NAIAAC Tournament.

Congratulations are in order for the Wesleyan Bobcats and for one special member of the team. Bobcat senior DeWayne Johns, who earned tournament MVP with honors in the fourteen team event.

Cross Country

This was the best record in Wesleyan history for a women's cross country team and veteran Coach Hank Ellis feels both Hidle and Martin will become two of the premier collegiate runners in the nation. Hidle and Martin placed first and second in the WVIAC meet to advance to the national race at the U of Wisconsin Parkside. Miss Unn Hidle is declared the most improved runner of 1984 and is the winner of the Sherwood Kerns award.

Women's Basketball 1984-85

The 1984-85 season proved to be an up and down year for the Lady Bobcats. Led by Junior Mary Hood and Freshman Ellen Chapman the Lady Cats struggle to a 3-19 overall record. After winning an exciting clash against Salem, the Lady Cats went on to win the battle against Washington and Jefferson and Alderson Broaddus. Having lost several games by a few points the Lady Cats entered the WVIAC Tournament at the Wheeling Civic Center with an upset on mind. Pitted against hometown Wheeling the Lady Cats fought a hard battle with four girls scoring in double figures only to fall 75-86 in what proved to be one of the best games in the tournament.

The purpose of the Intermural Sports Program at Wesleyan is to provide an opportunity for all students, faculty, and staff to enjoy satisfying experiences related to their particular needs, varying from the highly competitive type to those of a non-competitive and recreational nature. Contained in the schedule are team, dual, and individual sports. The activities to be played are determined by the interests and needs of the students. Also, various recreational clubs are available for students.

MURMURMONTIS

COLOPHON

This is the last thing you are supposed to read when you look through this book. So don't read it until you have. It's been a long year and not a thoroughly enjoyable one I might add. Through the course of the year I have discovered why this college has so often had problems with its yearbooks. Many are very apathetic towards its completion, both students and faculty: Although this has been discovered as being true, I, being a resourceful person with resourceful associates, have managed to complete the volume you have before you. Much energy went into its creation so I hope you enjoy it in some way (at least use it as a cheese board). I am happy to say I will never touch another yearbook as long as I live. Novels are much more fun to write.
